THINGS TO DO!

June 9-14, 2008

Juneteenth Celebration

This series of programs celebrates African-American history, heritage, and culture in remembrance of Juneteenth. The week includes a lecture and workshop, walking tours, an evening performance, and a Family Day at the Owens-Thomas House. Admission to these programs is free; project funding provided by the City of Savannah.

June 9, 6-8pm

Workshop: African American Genealogy

Dr. Barnetta McGhee White

2nd African Baptist Church, 123 Houston St.

Dr. White is an acclaimed lecturer, genealogist, and author of numerous articles and publications on the subjects related to African-American genealogical research.

June 10, 10am

The Andrew C. Marshall Walking Tour

Explore the story of urban slavery in nineteenth-century Savannah. Tour begins at the Owens-Thomas House. Prior reservation only. Call 790-8880.

June 11, 10am

Walking Tour: The Wanderer

The story of the slave ship Wanderer and the 1859 trial in Savannah are retold in this tour beginning at the Owens-Thomas House. Prior reservation only. Call 790-8880.

June 13, 6pm

Evening Concert: The Ebony Hillbillies

Telfair's Jepson Center for the Arts

Don't miss this concert featuring one of the few contemporary African-American string bands in existence. The New York-based band has performed at Carnegie Hall and other venues throughout the U.S.

**Please note that this program will be offered in lieu of Jepson Live for the month of June.**

June 14, 10am-1pm

Juneteenth Celebration Family Day

Owens-Thomas House

Visit the Owens-Thomas House for a youth program by the Ebony Hillbillies, performances by the African Tall Spirit Stilt Walkers, a "Jumping the Broom" ceremony, hands-on activities for young people, and free tours of the Owens-Thomas House.
